Other position details

As a Teen Volunteer at our shelter, you'll have the opportunity to make a positive impact on the lives of animals while gaining valuable experience. This role is perfect for young individuals who are passionate about animal welfare and want to contribute to a meaningful cause. You'll assist with various tasks, including helping care for animals, supporting events, and engaging in outreach activities.

The teen program runs in two semesters: Summer and Fall terms, providing flexibility and structure for volunteers to participate during the school year or summer break.
