Additional comments

I recently visited a and old friend and found out that in the back of his house there is about 4 kittens that need help. I honestly can't stop thinking about them and I don't know who I can contact for help. They appear to be 2 months; they can walk fine and are a little bit scare of people. My main concern and the reason I am writing this desperate email is because 2 of them have on of their eyes closed and one of them have both. It breaks my heart knowing there are so little and almost blind already. Please if you could help me I will appreciate forever.
