Additional comments

2 kittens, 2 adult. One adult cat seems to be deaf. Holds his head to one side, shakes his head while eating. Something def wrong with him. I started with mother cat and kittens. Trapped the mother and 4 kittens a couple of mos ago. Taken to a friend out of the county. Mother given to no kill after a couple of wks. Kittens have all been tamed and treated. Two kittens were left behind so I started feeding them after we took their mother away. Since then the 2 adult cats have shown up.
