4 months to 1 year

Reason(s) for concern - click all that apply.

- behavior
- no longer want animal

Other reason not listed cannot stand the jumping and nipping any longer/tried everything to get him to stop

How we can help you keep your animals?

You cannot. He is to excitable and energetic for us. We cannot control him and feel one of us is going to get injured. Or worse he gets loose from us and god knows what might happen. His behavior just keeps getting worse the longer we have him. We took him back to Orange County like you said to and they were not pleased and did not take him back. Please call me asap - 407-529-4157. Thank you.

Admin notes

1/4/23 Spoke with owner who stated she and her husband are elderly and the dog is to strong for them to handle. Dog is very treat motivated, however the dog is very mouthy/nippy when he wants attention. Owners have had dog since the end of August and can no longer take care of as they did not expect a very hyper/ excited dog. C. Wildermuth
