Reason for surrender

Unable to properly care for cat. I recently moved to Florida with my cat and we moved in with my sister and her dog. The cat and the dog do not get along. Having moved in with my sister, she is uncomfortable with the cat remaining in the house with her dog. Additionally, I now have a job that is time consuming and I am unable to provide the love and attention she deserves.

My current living situation is...

I have a stable home.

Admin notes

2/1/23- Called and left VM.AM
2/10/23- Per the owner the cat is 13 years old and is declining behaviorally and is depressed ever since they moved to FL. I told him that due to the age and that the cat is declining in the home the cat would not do well in a shelter environment. He is going to try other options and will get back on what he decides. AM
