How we can help you keep your animals?

He needs a boarding school but I can't afford that, I adopted him from the shelter and I have tried my hardest to train him and took him to happy trails for training assistance and bought him a special collar for training and another electric one.... I have tried everything I can to keep him as I do care for him very much But it's becoming a liability. He fought the other day with the neighbors dog while I was walking him and by Gods grace none of them bled but it was violent. I'm trying to keep him as an inside dog, but he keeps wrecking the household and urinating and defecating all over and has damaged furniture walls and I many other things and it's becoming expensive very quickly. I now to do several repairs to my house and my backyard. He is not housetrained, and no matter how many times we walk him. We come home to poop and urine inside his crate. He has already bitten me, my boyfriend, and my daughter when he doesn't want something taken away from him, he growls at us and it's becoming a safety concern. It pains me to have to surrender him, but I just can't as I fear that he might get even more aggressive and continue his destructive behavior at home. I just can't help him more than I have already tried to.
