Admin notes

3/23/23 Called owner Brian Agosto who informed me his dog "Max" a 2-3 yr old Maltese has a liver condition he was born with. Owner took dog to vet 3-4 months ago an was informed by the vet the dog would need treatment to stabilize the condition or require surgery. Owner is recently homeless and cannot afford vet bills. I asked if he applied for care credit and was told yes. Owner stated he has been using that for the medical bills but they are piling up on him making it very difficult. Mr. Agosto stated he has also reached out to several rescues and has been told they are all full. I referred him to other resources as well and made an appointment for him. Owner was told he will need to bring in proof of everyone he has attempted to contact to help with his pet. C. Wildermuth
