How we can help you keep your animals?

We rescued Romeo in March 2023 from Orange County Animal Services. He was found as a stray with no history. He had no name but has caught on we call him Romeo. We would love to keep him however he has high anxiety with our toddlers anytime they have a tantrum. He will do better with a household with older children. He does not get along with puppies or high energy dogs. We believe he'll do well with dogs his age or low energy. We do not not know how he is with cats.

He does not walk on a leash. He does go potty outside. He will only go potty on training pads but not always.

He will be best with an retiree or work from home person or couple with older children and older pets. As well as someone with training experience.

He's been neutered, microchip and had an evaluation by our vet. He is only on allergy medication.

Admin notes

5/10/23-VM is full. AM
5/17/23 called and spoke to the owner the dog has anxiety and starts biting at things (not people) when the 2-year-old in the house has a temper tantrum she keeps the dog and the child separate. the dog has attacked her dad's dog when he brought the dog over for a play date. she is still looking to rehome him and has reached out to some rescues but has not heard back. she is going to still continue to try and find the dog a new home while she awaits her appointment. I did make her aware of our policies and that we cannot guarantee an outcome for her pet. DM
