Dog has been too aggressive and bitten the other animals and two people.

How we can help you keep your animals?

Unfortunately, I do not believe Whiskey will be able to be rehomed unless it is specified to a handler for an aggressive breed. If you have resources, I would love to know of them, otherwise I fear he may have to be humanely euthanized. He is showing more and more aggression and I am unable to predict as no specific triggers have appeared, and it is random. I have 4 small children in the home and it is no longer safe for them as Whiskey is a big dog. Please advise how I should proceed.

He has been refused by 3 vet offices to get vaccinations due to his aggression. He has attacked our other dog and bitten 2 adults (one female, one male).
