How we can help you keep your animals?

We found this cat, pregnant in May of 2023 before we moved from our last home. We took her in, she had 4 kittens we were able to rehome but can not find anyone who will give her a good home despite trying very hard. We cannot have pets where we live and have been hiding her in an attempt to find her somewhere but have run out of time and face rental penalties if we keep her in our home.
