Reason for surrender

We received the puppy for free but as working parents of 2 young children we are unable to dedicate the necessary time to train the puppy as well as the additional funds for its needs. We hope that she can be adopted to a home that will love her and dedicate time for her. She is also consistently trying to bite us and other things and we don't feel the children are safe around her.

My current living situation is...

I have a stable home.

I have read and understood the pet rehome statement.

yes
