Reason for surrender

We adopted the dog in June. She is very sweet, but very aggressive and hyper. I am 70 years old and my fiancé just went through heart surgery and he’s on blood thinners. The dog jumps and scratches and we both bleed constantly. She’s too much for us to handle at her age. We need to surrender her as soon as possible before someone gets hurt.

My current living situation is...

I would rather not say.

I have read and understood the pet rehome statement.

yes

- behavior

Other reason not listed

I am too old to take care of her properly, and my fiancé just went through heart surgery and unable to care for her.

How we can help you keep your animals?

She's a very sweet girl, but there's no way we can keep her. We've tried every other option but came up with nothing. We need her done as soon as possible for everybody safety.
