Just a few more questions...

How long have you had the animals?

2 - 3 months

Reason(s) for concern - click all that apply.

- cost of food
- cost of vet care
- has too many pets
- no time for care

How we can help you keep your animals?

We helped someone out from Facebook group and they disappeared. They needed temporary care. Which turned into permanent care. Then we came to found out they lied about her being spayed when she started bleeding. So I’m assuming she also doesn’t have any vaccinations, deworming or testing done. They claimed she came from a rescue of some sort and we do not have the funds for vet care, testing or spay and we don’t have the time with the neighbors dog trying to get at her.
