Admin notes

10/12/23 Owner stated they bought the dog from petsmart as a stray and had for two weeks. The original story from some citizen was that the dog was a stray and they took the dog to petsmart where the owner bought him. After having the dog for two weeks, the original owner was found in which the owner now gave the dog rightfully back. The original owner then decided they no longer wanted the dog and gave the dog back to Garrett. Mr. Garrett stated originally the dog did great with his other dogs in the home and since he has gotten the dog back, he has been displaying aggressive behaviors towards the other dogs and has bitten his other dog. Mr. Garrett stated he would like to attempt to train the dog and seek out to another trainer to see if he can correct the behavior. If he is unable to do so, he will reach back out to us again to take further steps. No app is required at this time. C. Wildermuth

10/17/23 Owner called back and stated that the training was not working. Dog gets along well with the female in the house but does not get along with the unneutered male in the house. Decided to surrender the dog. CH
