Reason for surrender

The dog is not mine. It was from my sister and she moved out of state. I have called her multiple times to get her dog and she has refused and blocked me. The dog has behavior issues and is aggressive with everyone around her. I have a son with autism that gets attacked by the dog often and he is getting scared to leave the room.

My current living situation is...

I have a stable home.

I have read and understood the pet rehome statement.

yes

How we can help you keep your animals?

We can't keep the animal. We would like to surrender it as she is aggressive towards everyone in the house. The dog also isn't mine and her owner has refused to take it back. She moved out without telling me and left the dog behind. We didn't find her until we heard scratching in the door and found her without food or water.

Admin notes

11/7/23 CALLED AND LEFT VM FOR OWNER TO CALL BACK TO GATHER FURTHER INFORMATION. C. WILDERMUTH
11/13/23 owner's son called back because she does not speak english. He stated aunt skipped town and has hung up on them leaving the dog behind. He said the dog was hurt by the aunt in the face. He also stated that the dog will growl when you get close to it. I explained they had two choices to either wait until march to surrender or they could go ahead and make an appointment to euthanize the dog because of behavior because if it was in fact very aggressive it was not likely we would be able to adopt the dog or find a rescue that would be able to take the dog because they are full as well.
