Reason for surrender

I had to move to another place where they don't accept pets but this is only for 3 months and in March I'm moving again and I can have it there but I haven't found anyone who can help me since I can't pay that much money why would I have it. Take care, since currently neither my husband nor I are making money.

My current living situation is...

I have a stable home.

I have read and understood the pet rehome statement.

yes
