How we can help you keep your animals?

Hello, I am reaching out to you because I really need help. My mom passed away in November of 2022 and I’ve been taking care of her animals past that point. She left me with two birds and three dogs and honestly, I’m not really even able to handle myself now nonetheless the dogs. I really want them to be rehomed and don’t want to put them down at all. Specifically, I was left with two Huskies that have been especially problematic for me, which are named Angel (12 years old female) and Kodie(9 years old male). I’m only 22 years of age and I have no idea how to take care of these animals on my own. Ever since my mom's passing the dogs have been acting out. I honestly think they feel like my mom completely abandoned them and they do everything they can to escape. They normally were sweet dogs but Kodie has been showing signs of an aggressive animal, and one of the times he got out attacked a small dog(The dog is perfectly okay now) but it caused him to be labeled as an aggressive dog with the state. I’m willing to leave a donation that would be appropriate for relocating my two huskies, I just really need help I’ve been left with a mortgage that I can’t pay, a bunch of animals, and I’m still in college.
