His car has become more than we can afford and have time for. His health has been declining. he no longer warns us that he has to go to bathroom. At times he poops while laying down or in his sleep. He is eating his poop. Took him to vet they drew blood and gave him pills and said he had some type of worm that he got from being on the grass. He also has problems with joints and skin. King has lost a lot of weight and at times wont eat. Last vet bill was $600+ We do not have the money for his treatment. We We are also facing a possible foreclosure on our home. Other issues is blood in his stool. Was unable to upload any photos
