How we can help you keep your animals?

I have posted them on several different social media pages to rehome. Our landlord is selling our house and has given us 30 to move. We have to move out by April 20th and I can not find a new home for them. I have tried everything. Plus my husband and children have become very allergic to them. I have been trying to rehome them for weeks now with no luck. Now I'm out of time and options. If they are caught in our new house we will become homeless. Please help!
