This dog is a stray who is very anxious. Runs away at the sight of people and does not eat/drink much.

How we can help you keep your animals?

Hello, two days ago a stray dog who was camping on our porch, ran inside the house. I spoke with a few neighbors, none of them recognized/knew the dog. However, one neighbor suggested that I download Next Door and post about the dog. I did and learned that someone else posted the exact same dog two days ago. We are unsure how long this dog has been wandering around. Unfortunately, I can't keep it for too long. Many people in my household are against keeping it indoors, but I am worried that a small dog like that will not do well on its own. There is not much that can be done to help us keep it, most members of my household are against having it indoors. The only caveat we have is that we are looking for the original owners/ looking for a shelter to accept this dog.
